THE EXTRA SESSION.

Mr Morgan Puts on Paint and Goes on the War Path.

BUT FAILS TO CAPTURE ANY SCALPS.

Acrimonious Debate on the Closure Rule—A Promised Amendment to the Repeal Bill—Bill Dispassionately Passed.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The journal of yesterday having been read, attention was made by Mr. Morgan to the fact that he had not yet received the answer to his letter of the 14th inst. regarding the extra session. He then proceeded to read a letter from Mr. Sherman, dated the 14th inst., in which the latter expressed his regret that he was unable to attend the session. RUSSIANS IN PARIS.

They Turn the Heads of the Etrusque Populace.

AND SET MAIDS AND MATRONS CRAZY.

The Letter Run the Gauntlet of the Police and Risk Their Limbs to be Hugged and Kissed by the Gallant Naval Officers.

PARIS, Oct. 17.—After what may be termed a triumphal journey from Toulon, Admiral Avelar, commander of the fleet, accompanied him arrived here at 9 P.M. at an early hour people began gathering about the Gare de Lyon railway station at which the nation's guests were to arrive.

A noteworthy feature of the reception was the courtesy of the women to subject themselves to the embraces of the Russians, who, it must be said, were fully equal to the occasion. Hugged and kissed by the gallant naval officers, they were not less courteous to the women who were waiting for them.

After the reception by the municipal authorities the officers were driven to the Hotel de Ville, where they were received by the Russian ambassador, Count Benckendorff. The club adopted the Russian custom, and bread and salt were served to the guests.

Mr. Benckendorff then addressed the guests, and the Russian ambassador, Count Benckendorff, then addressed the guests. He then proceeded to read a letter from Mr. Sherman, dated the 14th inst., in which the latter expressed his regret that he was unable to attend the session.

GOLDEN COINCIDENCES.

Lucky Buyers of the Bonds of the Guaranty Investment Co. of Nevada, Mo.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 18.—M. Van Slick, ex-president of the Guaranty Investment Co. of Nevada, Mo., who was indicted by the federal grand jury of Chicago Monday, and whose home is in this city, was seen by a United Press reporter and talked very freely.

"The action taken in Chicago, said Mr. Van Slick, is simply the prosecution of the life insurance companies, with which we have had to contend from the inception of our enterprise. The business is based upon the same principles that underlie life insurance, and it is just as legitimate in all respects as life insurance.

Mr. Van Slick has not been arrested and says he knows nothing of the action of the court except as it appears in the newspapers, and he seems quite indifferent to the whole affair. Among the patrons of the Guaranty Investment Co. in this city were prominent teachers, clergymen, and people in every rank and condition of life and quite a number of them have had their bonds redeemed within the past few weeks, that is, several of those who bought the bonds of this company less than two years ago and have paid for them less than $40, have drawn the sum of $1,000 each. It is not true that all the gold investors in this scheme went into it innocently as a legitimate financial investment. In conversation the other day with a gentleman who had just drawn his $1,000, he said:

"They are more," Oh, no, the numbers are too high. I was on the ground here, I've got my money and I know when to quit. They have been $50,000 worth of these bonds redeemed in Fort Wayne within the past few months. Of this sum, $7,000 have gone to the hands of M. Van Slick and A. N. Spang, the local managers of the company, and at least $8,000 more making a total of $15,000, goes to very close personal friends and former associates of Van Slick. This is explained on the ground that the manager naturally solicited his personal acquaintances early in the life of the enterprise, but when the time came it will be regarded as something else than mere coincidence that placed some of these numbers in the hands of those who have profited by them.

President McDonald gives bond. Chicago, Oct. 18.—Geo. M. McDonald, president and general manager of the Guaranty Investment Co. came into the United States court last night and was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000. The statement under which the undertakers were brought, provides for a penalty of not more than $500 fine or one year's imprisonment.

An Extraordinary Memorial Service. Chicago, Oct. 18.—A memorial service in honor of Dr. Anandabhai Joshee, the first high caste Brahmin who ever left India, will be held at All Souls' church, Oakwood boulevard and Langley avenue, this city, next Sunday evening, October 23. Dr. Joshee studied medicine and was graduated at the University of Pennsylvania in 1886, and returned to India to practice among his own race. She was appointed physician in charge of the female wards of the All India hospital, Kolkatta, India. She died in India, February 29, 1887, four months after her arrival, and the body was buried with elaborate ceremonies, on the day of her death. In accordance with her wishes a portion of the ashes were sent to this country for interment, and this service is part of the final ceremony.

The Daltons, Whitechappars, and Their Confederate Friends. Jeffersonville, Ind., Oct. 18.—Elijah Dalton, James Dalton and George Holapple, each for five years, Edward Holapple, for three years and George Holapple, for two years, were received at the Indiana prison south, yesterday. They are the five whitechappars who inhumanly whipped Mrs. Eliza Holapple, her husband, for three months ago, and whose trials have just closed at Salem. No sympathy is expressed for them by the prison officials. Each will be assigned to hard labor.
